

Business Leaders in Management Editorial

Research management skills needed in today's business environment, then select a famous business leader you believe displays these management skills. Write an editorial for the newspaper detailing the leader's influence and contributions. Be sure to cite your sources throughout.

Your project MUST:

- Be formatted as an editorial (typed)
 - If using Google Docs you may wish to select the "newsletter" template
- Select a business leader you believe has been influential
 - Include four pieces of evidence that support your claims
 - Draw conclusions about the contributions of the influential business leader to the business world